Release and consent to publish

In consideration of the following manuscript submitted for publication as part of the Annual SASTA Congress Proceedings:

TITLE: _____

AUTHORS: _____

and for you (or your nominee) to present the Paper at the SASTA Congress in Durban, this letter, when countersigned by you, will serve as the Association's agreement.

The Corresponding Author declares that:

- The manuscript has not been published previously, is not presently being considered for publication elsewhere and that all necessary permission has been given for you to disclose the content of the Paper
- To the best of your knowledge, nothing in the manuscript infringes any intellectual property right or discloses any confidential information vested in a third party
- The manuscript does not contain any subject matter that contravenes any laws (including any defamatory material and misleading and deceptive material)
- The manuscript meets ethical standards applicable to the research discipline
- All authors have read the manuscript and have agreed to its publication

Consent to Publish

The Corresponding Author gives SASTA permission to:

- Publish the final manuscript as part of the Congress Proceedings
- Publish the final manuscript on the SASTA website for distribution

The Corresponding Author agrees to:

- Include a link and/or reference to the Paper as published by SASTA on all digital copies used within his/her institution
- Not reproduce or authorise others to reproduce adaptations of the Paper that are substantially identical to the Paper for any commercial publication
- Not use the Paper in any way that implies that SASTA, or the Congress Organising Committee endorses any product or procedure described in the Paper

When exercising any rights assigned or granted, each party is required to give sufficient acknowledgement of the contribution made by any other party to the published material, including a citation to the Proceedings.

If the paper is rejected by the Congress Organising Committee in writing (including electronic transmission), all rights under this agreement revert to the Author(s).

The Corresponding Author acknowledges that he/she is signing on behalf of all authors with their authorisation. Faxed or scanned signatures are acceptable.
